

KIDNAPPING CASE OF FRED W. BROWN BEING TRIED AT TOMBSTONE

Brings in the I. W. W. Cases in the Tombstone District --- The Federal Judge Took Two Weeks to Decide Procedure --- The Strike Features Considered by Judge Pattee --- Disloyalty Evidence Was Rejected.

(By Associated Press)

Tombstone, Ariz., April 16.—Harry Edward Wootton, a hardware dealer of Bisbee, Arizona, was the first of more than 200 defendants to be tried on a charge of kidnapping in connection with the deportation of 1,186 striking copper miners and their sympathizers from Bisbee to Columbus, New Mexico, July 12, 1917. In Arizona the penalty of kidnapping is imprisonment for not less than one and not more than ten years.

The story of the deportations, as told in a report of the mediation commission appointed by President Wilson, and headed by Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson, is briefly as follows: "Early on the morning of July 12, the sheriff and a large armed force presuming to act as deputies under the sheriff's authority, comprising about 2,000 men, rounded up 1,186 men in the Warren district, put them aboard a train, and carried them to Columbus, New Mexico. The authorities at Columbus refused to permit those in charge of the deportation to leave the men there, and the train carried them back to the desert town of Hermanas, New Mexico, a near-by station. The deportees were wholly without adequate supply of food and water and shelter for two days. At Hermanas, the deported men were abandoned by the guards who had brought them, and they were left to shift for themselves. The situation was brought to the attention of the War Department, and on July 14 the deportees were escorted by troops to Columbus, where they were maintained by the government until the middle of September."

The defense made on behalf of Wootton, who was specifically charged with kidnapping Fred W. Brown, at the time of the deportations a representative of the American Federation of Labor, was that the law of necessity justified the alleged violation of statute law. Captain Harry C. Wheeler, veteran of the Spanish-American war and of the Great War, who was sheriff of Cochise county at the time of the deportations, and who repeatedly assumed full responsibility for them, declared on the witness stand that he decided upon the deportations as the only means of safeguarding the lives and property of the people of the Warren district and of protecting the interests of the United States government. The strikers were endeavoring to tie up an important part of the country's copper output and therefore were injuring the country and hindering it in the prosecution of its war against Germany, Captain Wheeler testified.

After considering the question for nearly two weeks, Judge Samuel L. Pattee ruled that the defense would be permitted to show conditions in the Warren district in an effort to establish that the law of necessity would apply. The court declined to permit Wootton's attorneys to adduce evidence as to the nation-wide anti-government conspiracy alleged by them, until the foundation for such evidence had been laid by proof of menacing conditions in the Warren district.

It was not long, however, before the issue of what County Attorney Robert N. French, who conducted the prosecution, termed "I. W. Wism" was frankly injected into the case. The defense introduced in evidence photographic copies of alleged I. W. W. documents tending to show that the called in the Warren district June 26, 1917, was designed more as an aid to the mine strike in Butte, Montana, than in force, than as a means of obtaining better conditions for the miners of the Warren district.

The trial began February 2. More than five weeks were consumed in the selection of a jury, the actual taking of evidence commencing March 10, and will be concluded as rapidly as possible and the verdict announced.

Strikers Released on Bond.

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, April 16.—Speedy disintegration of unauthorized railroad strikes in Central and Far West is predicted today with the government's arrest of twenty-five insurgent strike leaders in Chicago headquarters. They were released under $10,000 bail with promise to refrain from strike activities pending the hearing of the charges of violating the Lever control act, which were lodged against them.

Wm. Haywood For "Big Union."

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, April 16.—Plans of industrial workers world to advocate one "big union" movement during present unrest among railroad workers is revealed in statement by William Haywood, former secretary of the I. W. W. and John Sandgren, editor of a radical paper, here today. Both denied contention between I. W. W. and the "insurgent" railroad organizations now on strike but said efforts had been made to institute "industrial

MR. HOWELL IS VICE PRESIDENT OF TEXAS LUMBERMEN

(By Associated Press.)

San Antonio, Texas, April 16.—Decision to meet in Houston next year, the election of officers and adoption of resolutions endorsing the Americanism of the open shop principles, a salary increase for public school teachers, modification of the homestead law to permit loans for use as capital and other resolutions dealing directly with the lumber trade, were outstanding features of the meeting Thursday morning, which concluded the thirty-fourth annual convention of the Texas Lumbermen's association here.

E. P. Hunter of Waco was elected president; W. S. Howell of Bryan, first vice president; Albert Steves, Jr. of San Antonio, second vice president; T. W. Blake of Houston, treasurer; J. C. Dionne of Houston, re-elected for the eighth time as secretary, and J. C. Ray of Waco, sergeant at arms. Houston won the next convention over Dallas, the only two cities contesting. Forty-five directors were elected.

John Thompson was in the city today from Edge and paid the Eagle office a pleasant call.

unionism" in unauthorized railroad strike as in all other important strikes. Haywood said the I. W. W. would continue its efforts as long as it is organized.

Although some of the leaders declared they had just begun to fight, it is understood the "insurgent" organizations will hold meetings today to decide on the action toward the government's ultimatum last night that interference with shipment of foods and other necessities of life must stop. Strikers were returning to work at several rail centers, however, and certain sections that closed industries were prepared to resume operations.

Railroad Board to Work.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, April 16.—The newly appointed railroad labor board which will consider immediately the wage demands of railroad employees, held its first meeting today with six of the nine members present, following their confirmation by the senate last night. One railroad and two public representatives were absent but are expected to arrive tomorrow.

Howatt and Others Under Bond.

(By Associated Press.)
Pittsburg, April 16.—Notice of appeal to the supreme court in the cases of Alexander Howatt and his three Miners Union associates officials, now in jail for contempt of court, was given in the district court here today. Application for bond and stay of execution were pending in the supreme court when the action was filed. The bonds were fixed at $3,000 each.

THE CRISIS.

The Eagle devoutly hopes that stable conditions will soon prevail everywhere in God's universe. It hopes that the present unrest and unsatisfactory situation will become normal in every line of business. The reconstruction period is always trying and it takes courage and fidelity, loyalty, co-operation and justice to get back in the right path. It will take more than that—God's laws of morality and Christianity must prevail. Political agitation and other contests will not meet the issues that confront the world. Stalwart men of courage must stand for the right for all men—rich and poor. Equity and comity should prevail in Bryan, in Texas, in the United States and in the whole world and every citizen should pledge mutually to each other in this crisis as did the American patriots who gave the world that priceless document, the Declaration of Independence: "Their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor." And above all and beyond all in this perilous day of unrest and danger we should not forget: "That He is the Lord of Hosts, the God of Battles and the King of Glory." Ministers, laymen, professional men, business men and workers of all classes are called as witnesses that God said in the immortal Golden Rule: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," is the principle that is glorious, eternal and undying.

MAKING CLOTH AT A. AND M. COLLEGE A GREAT FEATURE

Small Mill Operated Under Direction of Prof. J. B. Bagley, Similar to Other Commercial Mills and Splendid Quality of Goods Pays Expenses of Operation.

One of the most interesting Department of this College both to the technically trained person and to the average uninformed person, who clothes himself or herself in garments fabricated from material similar to that produced by this Department every day, is the Textile Engineering Department.

J. B. Bagley, head of the Department of Textile Engineering, is responsible for the growth and present efficiency of the Department, for the operation of the mill on a financially sound basis, and for the establishment and growth of one of the largest and best cotton classing schools in the whole world. He has been connected with the department ever since its establishment in 1905.

He operates a small cotton mill, complete in every detail for manufacturing cloth of the ordinary grade. The raw cotton is bought on the streets of Bryan in the ordinary five hundred pound bale that comes from the gin, brought to the mill and made into cloth, which is sold at market prices. The only difference in this cloth and the other brands that are sold off the same shelf in the same store is that the labor which operated the machinery involved in the manufacture of it is done by students of this College who are taking the course in Textile Engineering.

Otherwise the operation of this mill is identical the same as any other one of the thousands of small commercial cotton mills of this country. The chief production of our mill is in the form of "canvases," the material used in covering walls preparatory to papering. In fact this is the only manufactured product placed on the market by the Textile Engineering Department. But, the more elaborate patterns are made, in small quantities, by the Senior students. They do practice work in conceiving and putting into cloth their plans for the fancy weaves. One Senior plans and manufactures a good pattern of shirt goods. He makes a few yards, which the department donates to him and if he chooses he has it made into a shirt. A small sample of the same piece is placed in an exhibition case. A large number of variously designed and colored materials that have been made by the students of different classes are kept by the department and these will be appreciated by any one who looks at them.

This is another one of the departments that operates on a commercial basis, that pays its own way. Or it should be said, practically pays the expense of its operation. This is done by manufacturing a salable product and selling at profitable prices. The word "practically" is used because there is an appropriation of five hundred dollars per year expended by the department. Simply stated, this profit is the difference between the cost of raw cotton used in the manufacture of cloth and the price received for the product of this raw cotton. This year about twenty 500 pound bales of cotton costing approximately $3,500 will be manufactured into cloth which when sold will bring the department about $6,000. This difference of $2,500, then, is, roughly stating, the profit. Of course if we dwell on the word "profit" there are a number of things that must be taken into consideration to protect the above statement that this $2,500 is really profit. There is interest on the investment in building and machinery, salaries of instructors, etc., to come off, but to balance these amounts there are other services that must be credited. For instance, classes are taught in cotton classing throughout the school year, and a summer school of cotton classing is conducted.

SUPPORTERS OF BAILEY ARE NOW CHALLENGED

Dallas, Tex., April 15.—If supporters of former Senator Joseph W. Bailey did deposit $300,000 in a Dallas bank to pay for the holding of a statewide May primary for electing delegates to the democratic national convention, M. H. Wolfe as chairman, will call the democratic executive committee together and recommend to that body that a special primary election be called, he told Luther Nickels, Bailey campaign manager, in a letter given out by Mr. Wolfe today. Mr. Wolfe estimates that an approximate $300,000 cost will be entailed in such an election as has been proposed and he insists that the officers of the election should not be asked to serve without pay.

Luther Nickels said late today that he had not received the communications from Mr. Wolfe. He would not indicate what reply he would make as Bailey's campaign manager to the proposal of the democratic executive committee chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Closs and daughter, Miss Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Closs, Jr., and Morgan Closs, Jr., of Edge were visitors in the city today.

E. Vinson announced today. Neither class will be permitted to give receptions for two years.

The damage to the Knights of Columbus hall where the fight occurred must be paid within ten days or all the men involved will be suspended. About 600 pages of evidence was taken by the discipline committee and review by President Vinson before the penalties were announced.

THE POLES ARE CROWDING STREETS OF WARSAW

Warlike Preparations of the Poles and Bolsheviks --- Warsaw is Crowded to the Very Limit of Its Capacity.

(By Associated Press)

Warsaw, April 16.—Warsaw is humming with war activity and is crowded to its very doors with hordes of poverty-stricken refugees from the areas for which the Poles and Bolsheviks are fighting. Travelers say it is the most crowded city in eastern Europe. The population is estimated to have increased from 800,000 to 1,300,000 since the world war began.

Everywhere there are officers and soldiers. Military automobiles, tractors and various other vehicles of war traverse the streets all day and most of the night. The safe life is as bright and gay as even, but the restaurants and theaters close at 10 p. m. to save food, light and labor. The refugees from the war-stricken areas began streaming into the city about a year ago, and have been coming ever since, hoping to find food and places to sleep. The problem of providing for them has baffled the city officials.

In the poorer districts, basements, which for generations were used for storage purposes have been used for refugees' sleeping quarters. In instances 15 to 20 persons, and even more, sleep on a basement floor, on straw. Others have found shelter in stables or in buildings intended for schools. Many of these refugees are women, with children who have come out of the east virtually without funds. During the day these people are partly supplied with food by the municipality or some of the welfare organizations. Many exist only by begging.

Warsaw's tenements, always crowded as New York's east side has been for years, are jammed with humanity as never before, and during the severe winter weather when there was an epidemic of influenza here old men and children died by the hundreds every day in this land of the poor.

City officials see no relief in sight until warmer weather comes when they hope the people will gradually begin leaving for the country to work on farms.

BIG PARTY TO THE BANKER-FARMER CONFERENCE COMING

(Special to The Eagle)

Georgetown, Texas, April 16.—More than 35 farmers and bankers of Williamson county have indicated to County Agent Owen W. Sherrill their purpose to attend the banker-farmer conference at the State Agricultural and Mechanical College, Bryan, April 20 and 21. Mr. Sherrill states that he expects to have all reservations in two Pullman cars taken before the time to start, which will be next Tuesday night. These cars will be made up at Taylor, set off at the college for the use of those who came in them and the party will return in a body after the conference. The program for this conference as arranged by the college is a splendid one, covering all phases of business, and will no doubt prove one of the most beneficial joint meetings ever held at A. and M.

Sonora Troops Are Ready.

(By Associated Press)
Agua Prieta, April 16.—Sonora troops are continuing their march toward Culiacan, capital of Sinaloa, it is officially announced. Militarists said the success of the Sonora troops in Sinaloa would give the seceding state military power to overcome any Carranza force sent to Sonora. It is said Carranza intends to send three armies against Sonora, one attacking from Sinaloa another landing in Sonora territory from transports, and the third attacking from Chihuahua. Sonora troops however took aggressive steps already capturing two Sinaloa towns. Rumors continue of the secession of other states and revolt of Carranza troops but confirmation is impossible.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR BANKER-FARMER MEETING

(Special to The Eagle)

College Station, Texas, April 16.—Final arrangements have been completed for entertaining the Banker-Farmer Conference to be held at this place April 20 and 21, and judging from the responses received by Major Ike Ashburn, chairman of the entertainment committee, a record-breaking crowd of bankers and farmers will be present. A letter just received from M. H. Gossett, president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, contained copies of communications from some fifty farm loan associations reporting the possibility of a large attendance of bankers and farmers from each individual section. These letters did not come from one community but from such representative towns as Coleman, Canton, Paris, Farmersville, Falfurrias, Hughes Springs, Smithville, Floydada, Denton, Ft. Worth, Corsicana, Cooper, Waco, Copera Cove, etc.

Joseph Hirsch, of Corpus Christi, has requested reservations and will bring special coaches containing enthusiastic bankers and farmers from his section, while it is rumored that F. M. Law, of Houston, has entered into a contest with P. L. Downs of Temple to bring two farmers from Harris County for every one Mr. Downs brings from Bell County, and Mr. Downs says he will have to travel by the car loads if he does as he will bring representatives by auto, Pullman, etc., from every section of Bell county, while Williamson county representatives declare that they will lead the delegation and have already made provision for special coaches and a regular procession of automobiles. Neither does the enthusiasm stop with these gentlemen, since W. W. Woodson of McLennan county and representatives in Ellis county will be strong contenders for first place in attendance. In fact, the indications are that the first banker-farmer meeting ever held in Texas will witness a crowd far beyond the expectations of the most enthusiastic optimist, and ample provision is being made for the entertainment of any number desiring to come, since the cadets will put up shelter tents and vacate the dormitories for the accommodation of the visitors.

The program committee, according to Dean E. J. Kyle, chairman, has arranged for an interesting and instructive program, and the advantages of improved beef cattle over scrubs will be discussed and illustrated by demonstration, while the same provisions have been made regarding poultry, sheep, hogs, horses, and dairy cattle; also lectures and demonstrations in the prevention of hog cholera will be given. Dr. Mark Francis, who has done more probably than any other person to eliminate the Texas fever tick, will deliver one of his highly characteristic and interesting lectures on the "Eradication of the Texas Fever Tick." Demonstrations and lectures have also been arranged for the Agronomy Experiment Station by expert plant breeders, agronomists, entomologists, etc., and at the Feeding and Breeding Station by swine husbandmen, dairy specialists, poultry specialists, etc.

An interesting feature of the entertainment will be a moving picture showing the actual work and results accomplished by the boys pig club work in Williamson county. This picture has been shown in a number of places and has been pronounced a decided success.

No doubt the $1,500 rooster, at the College Poultry Plant, as well as the Buffalo, Brahma, cattle, bear, elk, deer, etc., at the station will also prove quite an interesting attraction, while the Grand Review by the cadet corps in celebration of San Jacinto Day and in honor of the visitors should prove a valuable drawing card to every patriotic Texas citizen.

Music by the College band, student stunts and other forms of entertainment have been arranged for the evening hours, so that there should not be a dull moment during the conference. In fact, every practical arrangement has been completed for the entertainment of the Banker-Farmer Conference, and the indications are that it will be an event long to be remembered by the bankers and farmers of this state, as well as the students and residents of the College campus.

General Manager A. L. Burge and Publicity Director C. A. Tunnell of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, have asked Secretary Eberstadt, of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce, to make hotel reservation for them. Secretary Evans of the Sulphur Springs Chamber of Commerce, is expected to attend. Men from all over Texas will attend the conference. It will probably be one of the great meetings for Texas.

Hon. Walton Petet, of Dallas, representing the Texas Chamber of Commerce, stated in Bryan the other day while on his way to San Antonio that a special Pullman would come from Dallas and on it would be Dr. J. H. Connell, county agent C. O. Moser, President John T. Orr, of the State Council of Agriculture and several prominent bankers of Dallas.

THE COUNTY AGENT.

One of the most important steps inaugurated by the Bryan Chamber of Commerce in many days is the proposed employment of a county agent for Brazos county. The expenses are borne partially by the A. and M. College and Brazos County through the commissioners court but there must be a supplement fund to be able to secure the right man for this important position. Every county in Texas—practically—of any agricultural importance has a county agent to handle the problems of the farming and stock raising interests. Brazos will get in the first class. The Eagle wishes to commend the College, the commissioners court of Brazos County and the Chamber of Commerce for making this decision that will do so much for Brazos County. When the important matter was laid before the Chamber of Commerce by Mr. H. H. Williamson, of the College, the financial and agricultural committees headed by Messrs. Ed Hall and J. L. Edge took the question up for settlement and there was not a discordant note. This is what is called team-work and the proper way to accomplish the things that are needed.

BOYS ON TRIP.

Angelina, Brazos and Grimes Counties of Southeast Texas will send a member of the Boys' Agricultural Club in their district on the Texas Farm Boys' Special, which will tour the Middle West this summer, according to information given out yesterday by Walton Petet, manager of the agricultural department of the Texas Chamber of Commerce. The Farm Boys' Special will consist of a through train and will be routed through eighteen States and complete a trip of approximately 4,000 miles. Banks in Brazos and Grimes Counties arranged by private subscription to send the boys from their districts. Mr. Petet said.—Dallas News.

WICKED CHICAGO.

The Bryan Eagle says it would be a pity indeed should Christ go to Chicago. But, of old hand, we can't think of any place where He is needed more from top to bottom.—Waco News-Tribune.

Chicago seems to be a seething cauldron of debauchery and wickedness—from top to bottom. The poor are criminal because they are poor and the rich are criminal because they are rich. "If Christ came to Chicago" He would find a modern Sodom and Gomorrah. It would take a shower of fire and brimstone to purify Chicago. Many rich of Chicago seem to want to steal all the money there is and many poor want to steal all the time there is and between the two there is more wickedness in the "Windy City" than ever before. It is a stench in the nostrils of all decent people and smells to heaven.

Four girls were expelled from the Jennings' Seminary at Aurora, Illinois, on account of smoking. What would the poor boys do if every one who smoked was expelled? It seems the rule is hardly fair.

Over 100 cars of cabbage went to waste in the railroad yards at Palestine on account of the illegal and insupportable strike. What do madmen care any way about human life just so they gain their point? The strike may starve but the strikes must continue.

Col. George Bailey, of the Houston Post, declares that he just does not know how the Broadway "shimmy" dance is done. Forty years ago George could understand these things—but it is all too late now. Poor George, his day is over.

Railroad Director Hines tells us that he needs $500,000,000 to pay the deficit for his attempt to run the railroads just as gleefully as Charlie Chaplin goes into the restaurant and orders his lemon pie three times a day. Whatever we do we should do it cheerfully, that's certain.

The Eagle on Monday morning received sixty columns of "propaganda." It would take two men to read it. Nine-tenths of it is worthless. The propagandists ought to go to work on the spring garden. After April 30th we will favor a general shooting of all worthless propagandists. They are a curse to these present strenuous times and should be exterminated.

The Navasota Examiner-Review says: "Bryan is the strongest man the democrats have at present," says former Tammany Chief Croker. In plain English the former chief thinks the democratic party is a bankrupt. We would have a real race between W. J. Bryan, democrat, and Hiram Johnson, republican, or Woodrow Wilson, democrat, and Leonard Wood, republican. We might lick the republicans in 1920 again.

Ask your banker or county agent about the Banker-Farmer meeting to be held at College Station, April 20 and 21. Cheap rates have been provided and an interesting program has been arranged. You can not afford to miss it. The banker needs the farmer and the farmer needs the banker and this meeting paves the way for co-operation in community building.

It takes money to farm and the banker must lend money to prosper while all wealth comes from the soil. The Banker-Farmer meeting to be held at College Station, April 20 and 21 was instigated by the Texas Bankers' Association for the purpose of going with their farmer friends to the A. and M. College and learning something of what improved agricultural methods may do for a community.

and how through co-operation each may benefit the other. Progressive bankers backing progressive farmers with their money will make a team which will pull prosperity into any Texas community. Talk to your banker and county agent about it. Co-operation between progressive farmers and the bankers means much to Texas. Do not miss this opportunity. Cheap rates have been provided and you will be more than repaid for time and expense.

Fifty indictments were returned by the grand jury at Mayfield, Kentucky, for "night-riding." There seems to be a vast difference between "night-riding" and riding in the night.

The women of the United States are going to have the ballot and they are entitled to it. The politicians had just as well face the issue and quit their foolishness.

The Dallas News says there are over a million qualified voters in Texas, 96,303 of them being women. In Freestone County there are 4,080 men poll tax payers and 490 women.—Fairfield Recorder.

The Eagle understands that in the recent municipal election in Jewett the women were victorious for mayor and aldermen. Several women defeated their own husbands. The Jewett politicians can now go fishing and let the women plant their spring gardens and run the government.

"Thinks Politics Rather Quiet This Year," is a headline in the Waco News-Tribune. That's bad. We have been too busy to plant our spring garden and of course have neglected politics a little. In the meantime we will get ready and smite them "hip and thigh" at the proper time.

Newspaper headline: "Henderson Audience Cheers Pat M. Neff's Speech!" "O, Pat do not be over-enthusiased. Remember the fate of William J. Bryan in 1896 on the free silver platform. He was cheered by 200,000,000 voters and received 6,000,000. All is not gold that glitters in the political arena, Pat.

Mayor Ed Blackshear, of the Navasota Examiner-Review, has been dealing with the high cost of newsprint for several years but now since he has been chosen mayor of Navasota he can turn his attention to the high cost of water, power and lights. This life, Ed, is just one thing after another and only death will allow you to escape its multitudinous duties and responsibilities.

President I. M. Cook and Secretary W. E. Graham, of the Brazos County Marketing Association have called a meeting of the farmers interested at the court house in Bryan Saturday, April 17th at 2 o'clock p. m. All interested are earnestly urged to be present. President Cook has requested the Eagle to call attention to this meeting every day until next Saturday. Don't forget it.

An advertisement in a Chicago newspaper: "Wanted—A couple to room and board. No children taken. Could make room for several dogs with the couple." It is said that over 60,000 children in Chicago do not receive enough food to eat. Chicago tailor shops are not putting out half the production they did before the war and wages have increased nearly 200 percent. Money will not take the place of food and production.

A dog house at Kansas City containing what was said to be $8,000 worth of dogs was burned with its contents. While we are weeping over the loss of the howling dogs we can console ourselves with the fact that perhaps the children of Kansas City will get a little more food and attention. It is stated that so many people have rushed from the country to Kansas City that about 50 per cent of the children are not receiving the proper nourishment which will tell on the coming generation.

Don't you think the Daily Eagle is worthy of your support? Look it over and if you have not planted an advertisement in the paper do so. The management is putting every dollar in the paper that it possibly can to make it creditable to Bryan and Brazos County and all that is needed for a better paper is more advertising. We hope to receive the co-operation of every business man in Bryan as a newspaper is not only a business but an institution for all the people.

Five hundred citizens of Tampa, Florida, dressed up in overalls and paraded the streets in protest of the high prices of clothing. The Chicago tailor shops are making one suit where they made two before the war and at double the wages. "It is not parades we need," says Philosopher Perry Periwinkle. "It is more production." Finally when we open our places of business at 12 noon and take one hour off for lunch at 1 p. m. and do not come back in the afternoon and only draw our breath and salary clothing will cost us $99.99 per suit and there will be no clothing at that price.

The Eagle is against war, oppression and murder. It is opposed to kingdoms and usurpers of power in Texas, the United States and the world. It is for honorable peace through a League of Nations. It would destroy every gun and warcraft in the world except those needed for policing the land and sea by the several nations. Not many guns are needed for police duty. In early days in Texas nearly everybody carried deadly weapons—now we do not need them. Let us have peace. Civilization and Christianity will save the war-cursed world and not guns, powder, lead, murder and robbery. "O, God of nations be with us yet; lest we forget—lest we forget."

The Hopkins County Echo in speaking of a peach orchard near Sulphur Springs says: "W. P. Greer was in town Monday and said the cold wave Sunday hit him to the tune of about $10,000 as it got all his peaches and he estimated his crop at that before the freeze Sunday. Mr. Greer had already bought nearly $1,500 worth of baskets for this year's crop." The editor of the Eagle had the pleasure of going through Mr. Greer's Elberta peach orchard last year when he was gathering his $10,000 crop. It was a beautiful sight and Hon. Curtis Hancock former chairman of the Texas Highway Commission stated he saw the beautifully painted checks of the millions of Elberta's he knew why the state of Texas is called "peaches." TRUE COURTESY.
Courtesy, young man, is a great asset in business—your future success. Even though you are only a part of some great organization or monopoly and you seem to be monarch of all you survey, you will find in later years that courtesy is a splendid capital. You will feel better at night, too, when you have treated your fellow men with courtesy. It matters not how large your job is and your company is there are larger ones in the world. Courtesy is a great capital in this life—for the old man or the young man.—Bryan Eagle.

The Eagle speaks the truth, and could have said much more. It might have said, for instance, that no one can live a rich, full life who is not courteous. Of course, a rude, impudent and discourteous person can not possibly succeed in business. But courtesy is more essential to the higher success of life than even to business. True courtesy is not superficial. It is inherent. It denotes kindness, gentleness, goodness and selflessness, and is therefore the mark of the real gentleman or lady. It pays more dividends on the investment than almost any other quality or refinement. Among the other sins of our modern life is the prevalence of the abrupt and uncouth. The parents who permit their children to grow up ill-mannered and selfish are not kind to them, for they place an embargo upon success in life.—Houston Post.

ANNOUNCES FOR CONSTABLE.
The Eagle is authorized to announce Frank Krc as a candidate for re-election to the office of Constable of Precinct No. 5 subject to the action of the July democratic primary.

Mr. Krc is a well known citizen of the Smetana community, is serving his first term as constable of the precinct and is making the race for re-election on the record he has made during the present term. He has administered the affairs of the office with fairness and courtesy to all, has shown no favoritism and has served efficiently. If re-elected he promises in future as in the past, to give the very best service he is capable of rendering. The Eagle submits his claims to the voters of the precinct for their consideration.

PROSPECT POINTERS.

Prospect, Texas, April 12.—We are having some dry weather at present. The crops and gardens are needing rain very much.

Brother Thompson preached a most interesting sermon here Sunday morning. He used as his text the 1st chapter, 16 verse of Romans: "For I Am Not Ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: For It Is the Power of God Unto Salvation to Every One That Believeth to the Jew First and Also to the Greek." There was the largest attendance that we have had in quite a while. He will preach again the first Sunday in next month. Everyone is invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry Risinger of Steep Hollow spent Monday night with Mr. Risinger's brother, Mr. W. H. Bullock.

Miss Cora Garner of Steep Hollow spent the week with her sister, Mrs. Walter Bullock.

Brother Thompson of Bryan visited his son, Mr. Mack Thompson, of this community Thursday.

Mr. C. W. Carroll and family of Bryan spent Sunday with her father, Mr. E. Carroll.

Mr. M. T. Jones and family and Miss Mattie Wilson of Bryan were welcome visitors at W. H. Bullock's Sunday.

Prof. Bartha Risinger seems to be very anxious to get home Friday. We all surely do to see him leave.

Miss Tommie Wilson is making preparation to go back to her home near Huntsville. We also hate to see her leave.

Miss Lena Beal returned to her home Sunday afternoon from Benchley, where she has been visiting her relatives.

Messrs. M. T. Jones, W. H. Bullock, D. D. Welch, P. F. Freeman and Bro. Thompson are thinking of going to the river fishing Wednesday.

School will close Friday. There will be a school picnic Saturday. Everyone is invited to be there and bring well filled baskets of something good to eat.

TEXAS POPULATION WAS ONLY 212,593 IN YEAR 1850

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, April 14.—The first census record for the State of Texas was the enumeration of 1850, the Republic having been accepted as a State in 1845, at which time its total population was 212,592, or more than one square mile for each person enumerated. The city of New York that year had a few more than 500,000 people. In 1910 the Texas population was 3,896,542. No prophecy may be made as to total population based upon past percentages of increase owing to the great variance between decennial enumerations, but it is believed that this year Texas will give considerably above 5,000,000, which may give it fourth place among the States. It is now fifth.

When Texas was admitted as a State in 1845 it claimed considerable territory not now within its confines. In 1850 it sold to the Federal government for $10,000,000 all claimed outlying area which reduced it to the size as shown by present day maps. The enumeration of 1850, the first, was by no means complete. The country was thinly settled and the Government facilities of seventy years ago were not as complete nor as carefully employed as today. Only twenty three cities and their populations were separately listed in the first census. They were Austin 629, Bonham 211, Castrovilla (Medina County) 366, Comalton 256, Corpus Christi 533, Crockett 150, Eagle Pass (then in Bexar County) 139, Houston 2,396, Indianola 379, Lavaca 315, Marshall 1,189, McKinney 192, Nacogdoches 468, New Braunfels 1,298, Palestine 212, Richmond 323, Rusk 355, San Antonio 3,488, Victoria 806 and Zodiac (Gillespie County) 160. Only eleven counties were listed, the largest being Harrison with a population of 11,822, of whom 6,219 were slaves.

58,161 Were Slaves.

Only 154,034 of the people in 1850 were white. There were 397 free negroes and 58,167 slaves. The population given for the cities and towns includes persons of all classes. Galveston had 678 slaves, Houston 527, Marshall 421 and San Antonio 220. Of the white population throughout the State 84,869 were males and 69,165 females. The persons of foreign birth were shown to be 17,620, of which 4,459 were Mexicans, 8,191 Germans, 1,403 Irish and 1,022 English. The greatest proportion of the native population

Cameron, Tex., April 12.—Two political speeches were delivered here Saturday afternoon. Judge W. C. In the district court room John Pope of Dallas spoke to an audience in support of former Senator Bailey, his doctrines and his principles. Frequent applause greeted both speakers throughout the speeches.

WILFUL WASTE MAKES WOEFUL WANT

This old time "Saw" occurred to our mind on reading about those 100 cars of cabbage gone to waste in the freight yards at Palestine, Texas, and all traceable to strikes and "tie-ups."

However there is hope for better conditions shortly, since the decree has gone forth from Washington, D. C., that the people must and shall be fed.

Meanwhile our own truck gardens are looking healthier, and consequently you can count upon our having a fair supply of both home-grown and imported vegetables and fruit to supply your daily needs.

Tomorrow and Saturday we intend to tempt our thrift friends with a few money-saving bargains.

TAX PROPOSED TO PAY EX-SERVICE MEN IN U. S.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, April 14.—A composite soldier relief bill granting compensation of one dollar for each day's service to 3,000,000 ex-service men will be reported to the House within a week's time and its passage by May 1st is planned. Senate leaders announce the bill will be approved in the Senate before June conventions if it passes the House this week. No definite plans for raising the necessary revenues to compensate ex-soldiers have been decided upon but the most favored plan is a flat tax of not more than one per cent on sales. Such a tax, experts say, would net about $1,500,000,000 or more than needed.

ALLEN BOYS GIVE CONCERT AT TABOR

About forty Allen Academy boys including members of the band, the orchestra, and the glee club, went to Tabor, Saturday night, and gave an entertainment. Eight cars filled to the limit were necessary to convey the party.

On arrival at Tabor, the visitors found the parking space around the high school as well filled with cars as is South Main, Bryan, when the picture shows have on a special.

Before the hour set for the opening of the program, there was not a vacant seat in the building, and the latest arrivals found the standing room pretty well all taken.

Mr. Ernst and his boys gave a varied program consisting, first, of three numbers by the band, followed by numbers by the glee club, and then by solos and group performances by members of the orchestra. The violin solos by Mr. Irwin Ernst, deserve special mention. The audience showed marked appreciation of the wonderful sweetness of his violin notes.

During a period of rest in the musical performance, Professors W. D. Chambers and R. O. Allen, of the Academy, were introduced to the audience and made brief remarks.

The program closed with two or three more fine numbers by the band after which ice cream was served in a delightful informal way, while the crowd, old and young, broke into groups and fell into pleasing conversation.

The affair was under the supervision of Professor Bobo, the efficient head of the Tabor high school. Other teachers of the Tabor district were present to manifest their interest. The trip was made possible for the Academy boys largely through the kindness of the following Tabor men, who conveyed the boys to and from the scene in their cars: Messrs. Walter Armstrong, Tom Benbo, Will Walker, John Barnes, Tom McCallum and J. N. Close.

The visitors, of which the writer was one, enjoyed the occasion immensely, and they trust the people of Tabor felt repaid for their time and trouble.

A small admission fee was charged and a nice sum realized, which was equally divided between the two schools and will be used for the benefit of their libraries.

CONTROL BOARD LAW IS UPHELD BY HIGH COURT

Austin, April 14.—The constitutionality of the act creating a state board of control was upheld by the supreme court today in answering thirty-five questions submitted by the third court of civil appeals in the case of Atlee B. Ayers versus Senator Cowell and others.

The court held the act creating the board of control and abandoning the board of managers of lunatic asylums and transferring their duties to the control board were not violative of the constitutional provisions relating to management of asylums. The effect of the decision is that officers of board of managers were not intended to be constitutional officers nor to assure tenure of office.

NON-COTTON ZONES TO BE FORMED AROUND HEARNE TO STOP PINK BOLL WORM

Washington, April 12.—Details of the agreement reached by Governor Hobby of Texas and the Federal Horticultural Board, respecting the fight to stamp out the pink boll worm, were announced by Agriculture today, and Governor Hobby left for Texas Friday to make arrangements for calling the Legislature late in May to work out amendments to the pink boll worm act, and to make an appropriation to reimburse the farmers in the districts where noncotton zones are to be established. As indicated last night, this agreement on the part of Texas, in which Governor Hobby was able to give official assurance to the department, tended to remove the possibility of an enlarged quarantine against certain cotton products of Texas.

The department made the following announcement as to quarantines and restrictive action to be taken in Texas.

Department's Announcement.

"1. The State of Texas will establish and enforce a noncotton area covering the regulated zone now in effect in Southeastern Texas with certain additions to include new points of infestation which have been determined outside of the old quarantine line. This zone involves all or portions of the counties of Jefferson, Chambers, Galveston, Brazoria, Harris, Liberty, Fort Bend, Jasper and Newton.

"2. In addition to and surrounding this noncotton area, as a further factor of safety, the State of Texas will establish and enforce a regulated zone of twenty-five miles in width. The growth of cotton in such regulated zone will be permitted under the restriction that the crop shall be under the full control of the State authorities in co-operation with the United States Department of Agriculture for the purpose of enforcing any safeguards that shall be determined to be necessary.

"3. The State of Texas will establish similar regulated zones of a ten-mile radius surrounding all oil mills in Texas which are known to have received seed during the last three years from the parishes in Southwestern Louisiana now known to be invaded by this pest. Such points in Texas are now known to include Houston, San Antonio, San Marcos and Snyder.

"4. In addition, it is understood and agreed that the State of Texas will maintain and continue the noncotton zone established for the last two years at Hearne, Texas, and the noncotton zone established for 1918, including the counties of Presidio and Brewster, the Big Bend of the Rio Grande, and will continue the quarantine with respect to Valverde, Kinney and Maverick Counties on the basis of a noncotton zone, extending inward five miles from the Mexican border of these counties and the inclusion in a regulated zone of the portion of these counties outside of such border zone, in which all cotton produced will be under the control of the State authorities in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture as in the case of other regulated zones.

FIRST STATE BANK OF BRYAN WILL ASSIST THE BRAZOS BOYS

The First State Bank and Trust Company announces that they are offering a $300.00 prize trip to the boys of Brazos county on the Texas Farm Boys' Special, which is to tour the greater part of the United States in August is the statement made by H. H. Williams, of A. and M. College. This generous offer on the part of the First State Bank and Trust Company will enable Brazos county to be represented with two young farmers on this tour. There will perhaps be no county in the State that will have better representation than Brazos. Mr. Ed Hall, president of the First State Bank and Trust Company, when interviewed in regard to the offer, stated, "This offer to the young men of Brazos county is being made with realization that a country is as great only as the greatness of its masses. The greatness of a tour depends largely upon the greatness of its surrounding country. The Texas Farm Boys' Special and the other undertakings of the Extension Service of the A. and M. College are exhibiting to the farm boys that come to them as farm boys that are not accessible to the boys in the city. The town and country will not assume the proper economical balance until the opportunities of the farm is as great or greater than that of cities. It is the desire of the institution which I represent to aid, if possible, in developing not only the rural precinct of Brazos county, but the State as well."

The Extension Service of the A. and M. College, assisted by the county school superintendent, W. L. Powers, are furnishing the teachers of Brazos county complete information relative to the tour. They are, also, furnishing instructions and enrollment cards to every boy in the county who may have the opportunity of enrolling in the club work and competing for these trips offered. It is expected that the teachers and parents of the county will give their fullest co-operation in this great undertaking. Enrollment cards and detailed information concerning the tour may be obtained at the First State Bank and Trust Company and the City National Bank. Should a boy fail to get an enrollment card from his teacher, he may obtain one from either of these banks.

The Extension Service of A. and M. College announce that they are receiving many urgent and attractive invitations from colleges and cities throughout the United States for the "Special" to visit them, and the boys of Brazos county are being urged to take advantage of this opportunity. Director T. O. Walton, while in Washington a few days ago, called on Hon. E. T. Meredith, U. S. secretary of agriculture, and invited him to accompany the Texas Farm Boys' Special on part of their tour. It is expected that the boys will be honored by his company. Mr. Meredith has a great interest in the farm boys of America. He is exhibiting his interest by loaning money to many thousands of boys throughout the nation. He has loaned money with which to buy hogs, calves, etc., to a large number in Texas, as well as many other States.

number of the women and girls there in taking this very important course. The Brazos County Home Cross has now on its lists of Home Hygiene students, nearly 500 women in the county.

BAILEY NOW SPEAKING TO 'MEN ONLY'

(Houston Post Special)

Beaumont, Texas, April 15.—Joseph W. Bailey, addressed a large crowd at Weiss park Tuesday night, making verbal assaults upon the national administration, the democrats who opposed him in this campaign and the newspapers of the State. He expressed his intention of making a tour of the State following the campaign to deliver "men only" addresses in which he would tell the pedigree of those who are running the newspapers of Houston, Fort Worth, San Antonio and Dallas. While given very close attention there was a noticeable lack of cheering and his provocations were often flat. Occasionally, however, there was some hand claps, but not when the national administration was assailed.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK AIDS BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS

The First National Bank of Bryan is offering a $300.00 prize trip on the Texas Farm Boys' Special to the boys of Brazos county, according to announcements made this morning by Mr. H. O. Boatwright, president, which has been announced by Mr. H. H. Williams of the A. and M. College. This offer is being made in conjunction with a movement of the banks of Bryan to have Brazos county the best represented county in the State on the National Farm Boys' tour. It is to be doubted if there is a town in Texas near the size of Bryan that can boast of as many live bankers. Farmers and farm boys should feel proud of the fact that they have support and encouragement of such bankers.

Mr. Boatwright states, "In addition to the great encouragement that these prize trips will give to the young people of the county, it will enable Brazos County and its many resources to be advertised throughout the leading sections of the United States. There is no one who can better represent the county and its resources than some well selected young farmers of the county."

It is hoped that the farm boys of the county will show their appreciation of the great offer and encouragement that is offered by the First National and other banks of Bryan by enrolling in the contest at an early date. It will be bordering on the lack of appreciation if any parent fails to assist or encourage their boys to enroll in the club work and compete for representation on this tour. Invitations from Agricultural Colleges, towns and cities throughout the United States are daily pouring into the Extension Service of the A. and M. College. It will be impossible for the managers of this tour to accept and make use of all the invitations that are being extended.

Teachers of the county have been furnished with enrolling material, etc. Enrollment cards are already being received from boys of the county. Should a boy fail to receive an enrollment card from his teacher, one may be obtained by calling at the First National Bank. They will be in position to give any detailed information desired concerning the tour.

Red Cross Notes

A Red Cross fund of $100,000 for nurses who wish to fit themselves for public health nursing, which has to do with the health of communities, more than the health of individuals, has been made available to nurses in Bryan and Brazos County according to advice received today by officials of the Brazos county Chapter of the Red Cross.

The money will be furnished in the form of scholarships and loans to nurses in public health nursing in accredited schools.

This is the second national fund to be established by the Red Cross for this purpose. A similar fund was expended along similar lines several years ago. Of the total, $60,000 will be given as scholarships and the remainder will be disbursed in the form of loans. An additional $10,000 will be loaned for traveling and incidental school expenses.

A full course in public health nursing Red Cross officials say, extends over eight months. A one semester course lasts four months while short summer courses, six weeks in length, are given at various schools.

Preference, it is explained, will be given to applicants between 23 and 40 years of age having a high school education or its equivalent. A certificate of physical fitness is demanded in view of the arduous nature of the work.

"Much more than good education and good physique," the regulations covering admittance continue," is required to make a good public health nurse. The candidates must possess good judgment, self reliance, the ability to work in harmony with all kinds of people, good nature and common sense."

Those interested may obtain additional information by writing the Nursing Department, Southwestern Division of the Red Cross, St. Louis, or applying to Mrs. Albert Buchanan Executive Secretary local Red Cross.

"No physician may legally write a prescription for whiskey, wine, etc., before he actually has a federal permit and has been furnished with the federal prescription blanks. He must then, be well satisfied that the patient has a known ailment for which the liquor is a specific. No pharmacist may legally fill a prescription if by report or other reason, he may believe the prescription is for other than medical use. The pharmacist becomes guilty with the doctor and patients under any general abuse. All correspondence concerning permits should be addressed to Mr. Clifford G. OFFICIAL VISITS BRYAN ON TOUR OF LEGAL INVESTIGATION

(From Saturday's Daily)

Federal Prohibition Inspector Morris A. Moore, of Houston, and a former U. S. officer in France, spent several days in Bryan this week looking over the enforcement of the prohibition law in Brazos county. Mr. Moore expressed himself well pleased, in fact in speaking to the Eagle he used the word "extremely" with the attitude of the officers in regard to the enforcement of the Dean Law and the National Law and especially with the co-operation given him by Sheriff L. E. Morehead and Officer W. S. Martin. Before leaving for Houston on an inspection trip Mr. Moore after speaking of the efficiency of our officers said:

"I find no great evidence of bootlegging though the 'prices' quoted from two sources Wednesday and Wednesday night were so low that they led to a conclusion that either there is a plentiful supply or small demand or both. We welcome, and treat as confidential, information from all sources, that may aid in the enforcement of this law. We greatly prefer that name and place where we may communicate with correspondent be given. They do not have to furnish any proof or direct evidence, we are glad to receive advice of well founded information, but names, places and time involved should be generally given."

"Druggists" and "patients" should take note of the fact that any preparation containing more than one half of one per cent of alcohol, sold or used as a beverage, is in violation of the laws and both may be charged under several counts. "Soft" drink establishments should take special notice of this fact and that their handling of one or two brands of so-called "patent medicines" high in alcohol content is pretty good evidence of unlawful intentions, more especially when large supplies of the empty bottles are found in and near the places. The management of such places are cautioned against drummers who try to tell them that such handling is within the law and this department would like to receive quick information concerning such traveling men, their product, and house they represent."

"Any automobile, boat, aircraft or other vehicle used in act of transportation in violation of the law will be seized, along with the liquor. Service car men, hotel runners and all others are cautioned that it is a violation

The program committee has just completed and placed in the hands of the printer the program for the banker-farmer conference to be held at the Agricultural and Mechanical College, College Station, Tex., April 29 and 30 under the auspices of the Texas State Bankers' Association, which promises to be one of the most important events in its far-reaching effect on Texas Agriculture, which has recently been inaugurated.

The program is prefaced with a statement by William A. Philpott, Jr., secretary of the Texas State Bankers' Association, to the effect that the Agricultural and Mechanical College has kindly consented to place at the disposal of the bankers and farmers attending this conference its entire plant, consisting of buildings, equipment and lecture force.

The railroads have offered a rate of a fare and one-half on the certificate plan; that is, full fare will be charged to College Station, then, if as many as 250 are in attendance, the return ticket may be purchased for one-half.
